About the Music:

OASES was a piece made from the idea that I wanted to write a piece that was different from my other pieces. Coming from a very classical background, I think the music I tend to write is more within the convention that musicians tend to think in, but also to a point where it doesn't sound exactly like the piece before or after. I think that this piece is the weirdest one I've written, and I think it is a very fun, energetic and groovy piece. The thought behind the name is that this piece is the idea of stumbling upon a party of raucous fun in an oasis in the middle of a desert. This piece isn't meant to be taken too seriously, it's a mix of fun, jazz, grooves, and most of all joy.

I hope you have fun playing OASES,
Ethan Eglip
