About the Music:

David Maslanka starts his Fourth Symphony's notes by stating that:

"The sources that give rise to a piece of music are many and deep. It is possible to describe the technical aspects of a work -- its construction principles, its orchestration -- but nearly impossible to write of its soul-nature except through hints and suggestions."

The roots of which Pastel Limoncello come from are plenty, but as all my music starts with, it started with a way for me to express what I felt in a certain moment. That certain moment being my personal experiences in exploring Cinque Terre and the Amalfi Coast in Italy.

There are certain moments in someone's life that I feel can't be explained through words or phrases, but rather through expression, whether it be in music, art, sounds, or even colors. With this piece, I took the words of Maslanka to heart, and I put all of what I was hearing and feeling in that certain moment in Italy and pushed it all into this eight-minute piece: wonder, awe, but also a sense of somberness and longing.

Pastel Limoncello was written for the 2025-2026 Seattle Symphony Young Composers Workshop and dedicated to the director of the program, Marcin Pączkowski.

I hope you enjoy Pastel Limoncello,
Ethan Eglip
