Conductor's Notes:

This whole piece is in 3, and can get pretty crazy if you don't take the time with your orchestra to get them up to speed with how fast the soloist is going! This whole piece is based on the string orchestration, meaning that tempo is going to mostly rely on the percussionists going strong at the tempo and the strings keeping up in their parts. At m. 78 and similar places, let the violas work with the soloist on how to do the call and response scoops.

Please also keep in mind that the solo violin part was transcribed and not really focused on being extremely accurate, so it may be a little off, but the orchestration should be okay either way.

About the Music:

This piece was made for the Evening of Concertos 2025 event at Eastlake High School, with Annika Karthik being the soloist! With the solo violin by Ganesh Rajagopalan, I was requested by Annika to make an orchestration for her. I don't usually write for orchestra, so I would like to thank Taly Turchin for her help in writing the string parts. This piece is what I would consider to be a really cool showcase of a western style orchestration with an Indian-style solo violin!

I hope you enjoy Prabhata | Sandhya!
